The owner assumes the risk of loss or damage to their personal tree stand.
- 17. CROSS BOWS: Use of cross bows will be in accordance with state hunting regulation currently allowed only during the modern firearm season. Cross bows are only authorized on JBLM for hunting in training areas designated for Rifle Hunting (R/W, and selected H codes).
- 18. No trapping allowed at JBLM.

Endangered Species Act and Protected Land Areas

Certain species of animals on JBLM have been classified as endangered or threatened and afforded protection under the Endangered Species Act. Endangered species management plans have been developed for these species addressing specific actions to be taken on JBLM to protect populations and maintain suitable habitat. As a result, land use and availability may be affected and could also change the way some activities of the past are conducted. This change could also rescind some activities conducted and allowed in past years. All land users are responsible for contacting Range Control regarding “Area Access” or the Northwest Adventure Center for “Hunting.” Information will also be available on the JBLM webpage.

Protected Land Areas

Certain areas within various training areas have been identified as critical or protected habitat areas. Seibert Stakes mark NO-Go Zones, which are off-limits because of physical hazards, excess erosion, or to protect environmentally or culturally sensitive areas. RED or YELLOW reflective stakes are placed along the perimeter NO-Go Zones so that they are readily visible. Signs may also be posted with information of restricted areas and land use.

General Information

The information contained in this pamphlet is provided for personal hunting only on the JBLM Lewis Reservation and should be used in conjunction with the Washington Fish & Wildlife Hunting Pamphlet. The laws of the State of Washington are applied to the JBLM Lewis Reservation.

Area Allocation link can be found at JBLMmwr.com under Outdoor Recreation.

All personnel hunting on the JBLM Lewis Reservation will comply with all applicable regulations, to include all additions and revisions, and also the Washington Game Code. Gun registration requirement may be imposed.

Civilians are permitted to hunt on the JBLM Lewis Reservation. Civilians must follow all rules set forth in this and other pamphlets of JBLM Lewis and the State of Washington.

Non-Hunter – is an individual who is accompanying a registered hunter in the field. There is a limited hunter/guest policy allowing hunters to have only one non-hunting adult guest accompanying them. Non-hunting guests must be registered and wear blaze orange at all times while in an active hunting area. Individuals wanting to scout MUST acquire an “Area Access Pass” from range control (253-967-6371) and comply with the instructions given. DO NOT SIGN IN AS A NON-HUNTER TO SCOUT A TRAINING AREA.

Items Required for Initial Registration

1. Current Washington Hunting License
2. Driver’s License
3. Proof of Vehicle Insurance
4. Proof of Vehicle Registration/License Plate Number
5. Guns must be registered on JBLM 816 dtd Jul 2014. Forms available on line @ http://www.lewis.army.mil/des/le_veh_registration. Individuals must personally hand-carry completed form starting at the visitor center with directions to Waller Hall for processing.

WARNING: Hunting parties will maintain a safe distance of another party (100 feet) if possible. Violators may lose JBLM Lewis hunting privileges.

IMPORTANT: Hunters are responsible for insuring that they inform a relative or a responsible person of the hunting area where they are going, estimated time of return, and vehicle being used. Military police will respond to possible lost hunters. Call 253-967-3107/3108 after hunting hours. Contact law enforcement at the following email address: usarmy.jblm.imcom.list.des-le-group@mail.mil.

JBLM Lewis is normally open to hunting, in accordance with state law, wherever it does not interfere with training. All hunters are required to register and obtain a hunting permit at the Skeet & Trap Range, 3969 2nd Division Range Rd, or the Northwest Adventure Center, 8050 NCO Beach Road at JBLM Lewis North. A mandatory safety briefing will be given at the time of initial registration. Hunters are responsible for checking the training area weekly status. Do not call for status.

Migratory Birds (Waterfowl)

GAS MOTORS ARE NOT ALLOWED ON JBLM LAKES/PONDS/WATERS

All lakes and ponds may be hunted every day but only when the training area is open for hunting as referenced by the hunting codes listed in conjunction with the range control weekly allocation sheet (link is available on the Outdoor Recreation Community webpage under hunting). Waterfowl hunting is no longer allowed in any training area that is closed. CLOSED MEANS CLOSED TO ALL HUNTING.

The primary areas hunted for waterfowl are as listed:

TA 2 – (Entire Area) Sequelitchew Lake, McKay Marsh and any other bodies of water

TA 6 – Brandenburg Marsh

TA 9 – Spanaway Marsh

TA 10 – Johnson and Vietnam Village Marsh

TA 12 – Chambers Lake

TA 15 – Wetlands South and Muck Creek, potholes to the Southwest (affected by Endangered Species Act)

TA 16 – Lewis Lake

TA 19 – Cat Lake

TA 20 – Fiander Lake

Sign into the above areas utilizing telephone system (#7 for Waterfowl); all other areas open for hunting and targeting waterfowl will sign in utilizing telephone system (#4 for Bird Shot).

DO NOT BLOCK THE ROAD on areas that have limited access in and out routes.

State regulations require approved nontoxic shot to be used for hunting waterfowl on JBLM Lewis. (See current Game Pamphlet.) Duck blinds of a portable nature may be used for waterfowl hunting. Portable blinds shall be defined as a structure that will be erected, disassembled, and removed the day of the hunt. NOTE: For safety and quality of hunting, no blinds may be set up within the north and south side of the gravel center (known as the Hour Glass) (Sequalitchew Lake).

Upland Birds

Pheasant release site hunting will consist of a morning hunt (8–11 a.m.) and an afternoon hunt (1–4 p.m.). Wednesday, federal holiday, Thanksgiving day through the following weekend, P/R areas are a single release all-day hunt. Reservations for pheasant hunts will start in the morning on the day before the hunt on a first-come, first-served basis. Pheasant hunters are reminded to wear minimum of 400 sq in of blaze orange visible front and back.

Parking – All individuals MUST park by designated sign-in board. Parking in any other areas is prohibited. On residual non-release days, you may park anywhere, but ensure that parking doesn’t impede safety or conflict with other hunters.

Pheasant release sites with GPS board locations are listed on the ODR webpage under HUNTING.

Special Pheasant Hunt

Youth Hunt (Under 16 years old); Senior Hunt (65 years & older)

Check Washington state regulations for September dates for junior and senior hunts. A state hunting license will be required, and successful completion of the Washington Hunters Education Program is required. Youth must be accompanied by an adult (at least 18 years or older). Volunteers will be assigned to assist all youth and hunting dogs will be available. Normal sign-up/reservations are required as well as a JBLM Lewis registration permit.

A special pheasant area will be set aside for senior hunters, 65 years and older, in accordance with state regulations. This senior area will be made available only if enough sites are available to the general public.

Youth pheasant hunt dates will be identified in accordance with state regulation. All youth who qualify must also register as all other hunters with Outdoor Recreation. Youth hunters may sign up for the hunt 14 days before the scheduled event. Youth hunters will not use the hunt trac phone system but may sign up in person or call the NAC. A special folder will be available for this special event at the registration desk.

Pheasant hunters must sign in next to their name and out when finished at the release site board. If your name does not appear on the sign-in sheets, DO NOT HUNT. Contact the Skeet & Trap Range immediately if you feel this is an error. Pheasant hunters are not allowed to enter their hunting area prior to one hour before start time of a.m. or p.m. hunt. Pheasant hunters must sign in and out by the posted official time.
