Climb Mount Rainier

JBLMmwr.com

Join the JBLM ODR Alpine Club for Mount Rainier summit climbing trips

Washington is home to some of the most iconic climbs in North America.

Rising 14,410 feet above sea level, Mount Rainier offers nearly unlimited climbing possibilities with more than 60 named routes covering 32 named glaciers.

Want to climb Mount Rainier? Join the Alpine Club! From relatively basic grade II routes to extreme grade V routes, we offer summiting experiences for everyone. All technical gear, permits and fees are provided, along with highly trained alpine expert instruction (with more than 20 years of experience). You'll also get round-trip transportation to and from JBLM.

Conquer Mount Rainier on an epic trip!

The Alpine Club offers climbers three-day summit climbs on five different routes — Disappointment Cleaver, Emmons Glacier, Kautz Glacier, Success Cleaver and Tahoma Glacier.

Preregister now to secure your spot on a summit climb!

Call 253-967-6263 or stop by the Northwest Adventure Center anytime from 9 a.m.–5:30 p.m., open daily.

We also offer many other climbs to summits above 9,000 ft. If you don't see a climb you want to go on, ask us about planning a custom trip to suit your needs.

Begin a path to some of the greatest experiences of your life — stop by and talk to a guide today!

Join the Alpine Club today and have access to early registration for all trips!

Directions to the Northwest Adventure Center:
